

Turner Prize 2007

{slide=Who should win the 2007 Turner Prize?}The prize is given to an artist under 50 years of age for ‘an outstanding contribution to art in Britain’{/slide}{slide=Attributes}Suggestions derived from http://www.tate.org.uk/britain/turnerprize/history/issue_conceptual.htm

- Craft and skill
 - Beauty/aesthetic value
 - Originality
 - Powerfulness/thought provokingness
-
- Connection-making{/slide}{slide=Options}
 - Mark Wallinger <http://arts.guardian.co.uk/gallery/2007/may/08/turner2007?picture=329814213>
 - Nathan Coley <http://arts.guardian.co.uk/gallery/2007/may/08/turner2007?picture=329813912>
 - Mike Nelson <http://arts.guardian.co.uk/gallery/2007/may/08/turner2007?picture=329813918>
 - Zarina Bhimji <http://arts.guardian.co.uk/gallery/2007/may/08/turner2007?picture=329813936>
- {/slide}{slide=Ratings}Personal belief judgements{/slide}{slide=Weightings}Personal value judgements{/slide}{slide=Source}<http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/entertainment/6634451.stm> {/slide}{slide=Extras}http://www.tate.org.uk/britain/turnerprize/history/issue_conceptual.htm {/slide}

alt file here