

Health Prioritisation Ghana

Baltussen et al. derived average weights for the prioritisation of health interventions in Ghana by discrete choice experiments involving 30 health policy makers. Four main attributes emerged as significant.

{mostip} R

Baltussen, E Stolk, D Chisholm, M Aikins 2006 "Towards a multi-criteria approach for priority setting: an application to Ghana" Health Economics 15: 689-696 {/mostip}

The screenshot from Annalisa shows the results for 6 of the 32 interventions that were scored on these attributes using the elicited weights

alt file here